

COLLIE BURN TWO DAY RIDE – 14TH & 15TH AUGUST

Nancy Riley will be hosting this ride from her son's property at Collie Burn out of Collie. This ride will be held over the two days and will be the last ride before the annual trek. For those of you going on the annual trek you should try to attend as there is sure to be discussion and last minute arrangements for the trek to be finalised.

Venue	Phillip Riley's property, Bradbury Road, Collie Burn
Directions	Phillip's farm is about 8k from Collie. From Thossell Street turn (right if coming from Roelands and left if coming from Darkan) at the Miner's Hall, keep going straight ahead for 3 – 4 kms and after the second bridge turn left at the Cardiff Power House road, then left again at Bradbury Road, straight ahead again over the railway line and another bridge. Keep going for about 2 kms, the farm is on the left. If coming from Mumberlup turn right at the Cardiff Power station road. At all turns will be marked with blue and yellow ribbons
Times	Saturday ride will commence at 1pm after an unmounted pre ride meeting at 12.30pm. Please be there at least an hour before and make sure you sign the Club Ride Register before mounting. Sunday ride will be a day ride, starting at 8.30am. Any new arrivals on this day must be briefed about the ride and also sign the club register before mounting. This day will finish around 4.00 pm. Be prepared to carry your own lunch. Anyone wishing to travel down on the Friday please contact Nancy to make arrangements to camp.
