

COLLIE - LAKE KEPWARI 3 DAY RIDE 5TH – 7TH MARCH 2011

Nancy Riley will be hosting this ride from David Grahams property adjacent to Lake Kepwari (a large lake formed from an old Coal mine) out of Collie.

Venue David Graham's property which overlooks the lake.

Directions From Thossell Street turn (right if coming from Roelands and left if coming from Darkan) at the Miner's Hall / swimming pool corner (signed to Boyup Brook), go straight ahead for 3 – 4 kms and after the second bridge turn left at the Cardiff – McAlinden Rd (signed Muja 18k Power Station) and travel 11.3 kms. Turn left through a gateway (will be signed) into a paddock which is David Graham's property. Go ahead in the paddock and don't go through any more gates. The area to camp in will be marked. There will be cattle in the paddock so make sure all gates are shut at all times when travelling or riding in and out.
If coming from Mumberlup turn right at Cardiff – McAlinden Rd (signed Muja 18k Power Station).

Times The Saturday ride will commence at 1.00pm.

The Sunday ride will be all day commencing at 8.30am. Any new arrivals on this day must be briefed about the ride and also sign the club register before mounting. Be prepared to carry your own lunch and bathers as there will be a chance to swim at lunch time – there probably won't be a support vehicle.

On Monday morning there will be a ride finishing by lunchtime to allow people to travel home. Be prepared to carry your own morning tea.
